

Children across North Tyneside can take advantage of activities specifically designed to help them be healthy and active while off school.

Available to all children in North Tyneside, but free to those who receive income related free school meals, activities for Easter 2022 are open for bookings now.

From dodgeball and rounders to music and cookery, book now to secure their place.

Find out more at: my.northtyneside.gov.uk/ease-into-nw

North Tyneside Council